CAN YOU HELP

Some of our parish spaces, particularly the kitchen at St Joseph's and the Parish hall at St Alban's, need some repair and decorating. If you are able to offer any help please contact Eleanor at the parish office on 638 1520.

Also thanks to Mike and Phil for their work in our church gardens.

Congratulations and Thank you

To all the children and their families who have celebrated their First Communion during May and June. May the blessings of this special time bring new life to their faith journey.

A big thank you to the school and parish catechists for all your help and support in preparing the children for the Sacraments and for arranging the masses - our parish is truly blest to have you all.

.. and many thanks to our parish family for your patience and co-operation in welcoming all the children and families to our churches.
